THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

October 1, 2026

Dear Mr. Soloview,

Thank you for writing to me and for sharing your thoughts. Every day, I am fighting to make your neighborhood safer, make your cost of living more affordable, and keep the American Dream alive and flourishing for every family and every community—no matter what state you live in.

My Administration is doing this by bringing common sense back to our government, economy, and culture. We are once again proudly upholding the laws, values, and way of life that have made America the greatest country in the history of the world. My Administration is restoring safety to our communities; prosecuting criminals to the fullest extent of the law; clamping down on so-called “sanctuary cities” that harbor illegal aliens who thrive on your benefits, take your jobs, and drive up housing costs; and deploying federal resources to the cities and States that have abandoned their constitutional duties to protect American citizens. As a result of our efforts, the murder rate across our Nation’s biggest cities has plummeted to its lowest level since at least 1900, marking the biggest one-year drop in recorded history. America is also seeing dramatic reductions in rapes, robberies, aggravated assaults, vehicular homicides, and overdose deaths. And the reason is simple: We are on the side of the American people and law enforcement officers, not the criminals.

To further protect American citizens, I am working every day to make our country great again and to restore prosperity, opportunity, and affordability to our economy. Left-wing politicians in far too many States have imposed crushing taxes and regulations that make it more difficult for hardworking families to succeed. Since I returned to office, I have taken swift action to reverse these high taxes and regulations—including making permanent the largest tax cut in American history and eliminating taxes on tips, overtime, and Social Security. We have already delivered billions of dollars in savings to American taxpayers on the national level, and we will not rest until we dismantle the massive State-level fraud empires that are built on the backs of law-abiding citizens.

My Administration is ushering in a new revolution in common sense—and I will never waver in defending our liberty, our Constitution, and our glorious way of life.

Sincerely,
